

Shane Horstmeyer

4809 Lien RD. #108, Madison WI 53704
(608)402-9611

Career Objective

A full-time job and to help in the development of a game.

Education

Lodi High (2012-2016), got a high school education, 2.8 GPA.

Madison College (2016-2018), cheap college to go to and it helped me finalize that I wanted to do game programming, but they didn't offer it, 2.6 GPA.

UAT (2019-present), took a bit of time to find and was very worried about the cost. Recently started so GPA is up in the air.

CompetenciesHard Working

- don't give up easy, unless told otherwise of course
- stay focused on a task for a long time
- can be stubborn about making things work, in a good way

Friendly

- nice to all people with no adaptations at all
- help all who need it when asked and sometimes not

Fast Learner

- can learn a new feat on computers at a fast rate
- picks up on tips and tricks fast as well
- can pick up on something completely new on the computer in a few days

ExperiencePackage Handler (2016-2017),

Part time work for college and a flow of cash.

Duties – working with in a time restraint, operating a scanner
, dealing with constant strain

Community Activities

- Ran on the Lodi Blue Devils Cross Country team, (2012-2016)
- Choir Member of Lodi, (2012-2016)